

HAPPENINGS AND WHEREABOUTS

Mrs. H. C. Edwards entertained a party of friends at her country home on Thursday, and that they got there and got back was only a matter of good luck. There were thirteen of them who started from town and both machines broke down half way to the Cottonwoods.

After much persuasion an automobile used for the delivery of milk was pressed into service and took them to their destination. We have often heard of people in society arriving home in a milk wagon, but it is not customary to use one to leave home. After the affair, which was one of those delightful events for which the charming hostess is so well known, they started for town again on a new set of tires, which also gave way shortly after they reached Holiday, and they were obliged to return to the city as best they could.

And Friday, the thirteenth, was last week, not this.

One of the gentlemen whose copy is supervised by Theodore Bonnet, has a new golf yarn which will interest a lot of the boys during a week in which golf is very popular. Thomas Fortune Ryan, who is well known in Salt Lake, is a devoted golfer and upon his recent arrival in San Francisco obtained golf cards for the different clubs. A California friend of Ryan's who is also a golfer, was instrumental in obtaining these cards. The man met another friend shortly afterwards and said: "Let's take Mr. Ryan out to the golf links and separate him from some of his money."

"Can't be done," was the reply.

"Why not?" demanded the other golfer.

"Because Ryan learned the game from John D. Rockefeller."

An important event of the week, which was attended by half a hundred Salt Lakers, was the marriage of Miss Laura Eccles, daughter of Mrs. Bertha M. Eccles, at Ogden, to M. Alonzo (Lon) Romney, of this city. The ceremony was performed at the Eccles home on Wednesday evening, and was followed by a large and brilliant reception, which was attended by over four hundred

The formal affairs given for the members of the American Bar association have been of principal interest to local society during the week, but there have also been numerous entertainments in the afternoon and evenings which were not so formal but equally delightful. They have been in the nature of luncheons, teas, receptions, and little dinners, and those delegated to see that the ladies from out of town were pleasantly entertained have done themselves proud.

An interesting matrimonial announcement is that of Mrs. Ora Marie Morse, daughter of Judge and Mrs. C. W. Morse, to Joseph Duke Hurd. The wedding will take place in September.

Mrs. J. Frank Judge entertained at the second of a series of luncheons at her home in Cottonwood on Wednesday.

The marriage of Miss Frances R. Shields and George H. Gowans took place at the apartments of Mr. and Mrs. Shields on Thursday, Judge C. W. Morse officiating. Following their honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Gowans will be at home in the Richmond apartments.

Judge and Mrs. Wm. H. King and Miss Adrienne King have returned from California.

Judge and Mrs. Edwin G. Woolley announces the engagement of their daughter, Miss Margaret Woolley, to E. Vernon Thirlot. The wedding will take place in September.

Mrs. Murray Sullivan entertained at a luncheon at the Country club on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Paul Burke, of Los Angeles.

Mrs. O. W. Powers, who recently returned from Honolulu, is in southern California, and will arrive home next week.

Mrs. Hubbard W. Reed was the hostess at an elaborate luncheon given at the Country club on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. John B. Niel.

Mrs. Herbert R. Macmillan entertained at a luncheon at the Alta club on Tuesday for a number of the prominent ladies who were in the city during the meeting of the American Bar association.

Mrs. Clarence Bamberger and Miss Dorothy Bamberger are spending a few weeks at Lake Tahoe.

Mrs. Herman A. Prosser entertained informally at a tea at her country home, Idlewild, in the Cottonwoods on Tuesday.

"These South Sea Islanders are a queer lot. They have many thing which are taboo, mustn't be touched." "I see nothing strange about that. It is the same principle on which we carefully plant a lot of grass for people to keep off of."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

PAPRIKA

Southerner—Why are you Northerners always harping on the children employed in Southern factories? Northerner—Well, for one thing, it detracts people's attention from the childred employed in ours.—Life.

Mrs. Homespun—This paper says a wife in Formosa costs five dollars. Mr. Homespun—Well, a good wife is worth it.—Life.

Dewitt—What is the sense of that rule forbidding an athlete to sell his prizes? Winks—They are afraid some fellow might find out how much his $110 gold watch really cost.—New York Post.

"What," queried the unsophisticated youth, "is the best way to find out what a woman thinks of you?" "Marry her," replied the Shelbyville sage; "then wait a few days."—New York Times.

"Have you any creepers about your house?" "Yes—one." "What kind is it?" "Very fat, breaks up everything it can get hold of, and makes me walk the floor with it all night."—Baltimore American.

"Do you think there is ever much sensible conversation in moonlight strolls?"

"No; I guess it is mostly rambling talk."—Baltimore American.
